NUMB. 677

1737. 685.

LETTERS of the 9th ult. O. S. from Petersburg say, That when the Russians enter'd Oczakow, they found the greatest Part of the Town ruined by the Bombs, and by Fire; but that the Castle suffered least of all, because 'tis built on higher Ground than the rest of the Town:

That in the said Castle were found several Rooms, and other Places under Ground, full of Gold and Silver, Pearls, Precious Stones, costly Stuffs, noble Arms and Harnes, which had been laid up there for Security; and that the Count de Munich had made an equal Distribution of the said Booty among the Officers and Soldiers employed in the Taking that Place. A great Booty was also found in the Apartments of the Bashaw, and particularly all his Papers; among which were several Letters, and some too of Importance, which were written to him from the Grand Vizier.

After General Munich had left a sufficient Garrison in Oczakow, he march'd forwards the 10th of July, and 2 Days after he receiv'd Intelligence, that a great Body of Turks was but 2 Miles from his Army, and had even attack'd the Equipage of the Velt-Marshall General the Prince of Wolfenbuttle, but were repuls'd with Loss; and that on the same Day the Quarter-Masters and Harbingers that had been detached with 350 Men under Col. Fermer, to mark out a new Camp, had been surrounded, and attack'd by several thousand Turks, before they could be join'd by two Regiments that were command'd to support them: That Col. Fermer immediately form'd his Men into a square Battalion, and so bravely stood the Attack of the Enemy, that he oblig'd them to retire, having had but 9 of his Men wounded, and 3 taken Prisoners, who afterwards made their Escape, and reported that the Turks were no less than 5000 in Number, and that they came from Bender with 10,000 Tartars, to harra's and cut off the Body of General Leontieff, which happened to stay behind at Oczakow, with the Baggage and Provisions.

A Letter of the 9th ult. from Riga says, that Count Munich has sent to Petersburg for 12,000 Men more, to support him in his Undertaking against Bender.

The Czarina's Minister at Berlin has received News by an Express, that Velt-Marshall Laszy having besieged Arabat in the Crim Tartary, and bombard'd it for several Hours with great Fury, the Bashaw of the Turkish Garrison there, consisting of 6000 Men, desired 3 Days Time to capitulate; but General Laszy sending him Word that he must not expect more than 24 Hours, and that otherwise he and the whole Garrison must expect to be made Prisoners of War, the said Bashaw surrendered the Place by Capitulation, and when he evacuated it, was oblig'd to leave all the Christian Slaves behind him.

'Tis probable, that some Advices have mistaken this Place for Caffa, to which Laszy was to march next.

Letters of the 17th ult. O. S. from Vienna say, that the Court has sent 16,000 Ducats to the Emperor's Plenipotentiaries at Nimirow, besides some Presents, according to Custom, for the Turkish Plenipotentiaries; among which are, 6000 new-coined Ducats, 4 Gold Watches, 8 Silver ones, and 8 Pieces of Scarlet Woollen Cloth, as many of Green, and the same Number of Yellow. From hence some People imagine that a Peace is not far off, and that it only waits the Conquest of Widdin by the Imperialists, and that of Bender by the Muscovites. Mean Time, the Republick of Poland allows General Mier, who commands at Nimirow, 4000 Polish Florins a Week, to keep an open Table for the Peace-makers, and a great Quantity of French, German, and Hungarian Wines, is sent him from the King's Vaults at Warsaw to regale them. The Turkish Plenipoes continue to make a grand Figure, and spend high.

These Letters add, that General Schmettau having been oblig'd, for Want of a greater Force, to retire with his Detachment from Cassovia, had sent to Count Seckendorff for 3000 Men more, and some Cannon, to enable him to preserve the important Post of Novi-Passara: That by Letters intercepted from Widdin to the Grand Vizier, it appears, there's no less than 230 Cannon in the Place, and that a Reinforcement of 4000 Turks is arriv'd at Nicolopolis.

Other Advices of the same Date from Vienna say, that the Grand Vizier has pass'd the Danube with 4000 Men, and enter'd Walachia: That when the Commanding Officer at Widdin signify'd his Refusal to surrender that Place, he declar'd that the Bashaw of Nizza would lose his Head, for giving up that Town so tamely: That a great Detachment of Turks had enter'd Imperial Servia, where they burnt and destroy'd several Villages; and that several thousand Turks were advancing to the Detachment under the above-mentioned General Schmettau: That the Turks were assembled in such Numbers in Bulgaria, that the Rascians, who had offer'd to second the Imperialists, were oblig'd to retire; and that Col. Lentulus not being able to maintain his Ground at Novi-Passara aforesaid, receiv'd Orders to abandon and demolish that Fort, and to go and post himself with his Detachment in Cassovia, in order to cut off the Turks Communication with that Country. That Count Seckendorff receiv'd a Letter on the 6th ult. from the Governor of Belgrade, with Advice, that 10,000 Turks, with some Field-Pieces and Mortars, were advancing towards that Neighbourhood, Answer was sent him, that as no Succours could be spar'd from the Army, he must make Use of the Saxon Troops: And Orders were dispatch'd at the same Time to the Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen to march that Way.

The Report of the Death of the Cardinal Schonborn, Bishop of Spire, is not confirm'd, any more than the Rumour of the Grand Vizier's being depos'd.

They write from Lisbon, That Baron Nieuhoff, who arriv'd there from Holland the 4th of July, O. S. staid there 12 Days, expecting other Ships to follow him, and then sail'd for the Island of Corsica.

Letters of the 16th ult. O. S. from Geneva say, that the Magistrates of that City had been forced to submit to the Malecontents, who had turn'd some of their Adherents out of the City, detain'd others, and enter'd by Force into People's Houses, and carry'd away their Arms: That the Prince of Saxe-Gotha, and Prince Frederick of Hesse-Cassel, who were Students there, together with most of the Foreigners of Distinction, and above 60 considerable Families, were retir'd out of the City; and that the Magistrates had sent to implore Relief from the Canton of Bern, who us'd to stand their Friend.

The Motive and Progress of this Tumult is thus related, in a Letter of August 20, O. S. from Schaffhausen.

'The Magistrates having condemn'd 4 of the Townsmen to Imprisonment and Banishment, for having given False Evidence, and published Calumnies of a Seditious Nature, the Populace demand'd their Pardon; which being refus'd, they were resolv'd to rescue them by Force, and for that End took up Arms. The Magistrates in like Manner distribut'd Arms to such Persons as declar'd on their Side; whereupon an Accommodation was set on Foot, and each Party promis'd to lay down their Arms. The Magistrates set them an Example, by quitting theirs first, and the Populace pretended to do so too, but immediately took to Arms again, and invest'd the Town-house, where there were some smart Skirmishes, during which a Captain of the Garrison, and 15 Citizens were kill'd. The Malecontents, whose Party was the most numerous, seiz'd the Cannon of the City. The French Resident there has offer'd his Mediation to accommodate this Broil, which both Parties have accepted; but what Success it has had, we know not, because the Letters we expected this Day from Geneva, are not come in.

They write from the Hague, that the Prince of Mecklenburg was treated last Wednesday se'nnights there, in company with several Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction, by the Imperial Ambassador; and next Day by his Excellency Mr. Walpole, and on Friday by the French Ambassador, as he was also this Day se'nnights by the Baron de Sporke, the Envoy Extraordinary of the King of Great Britain as Elector of Hanover.

L O N D O N.

We hear that Baron Suasso the famous Portuguese Jew, and one Du Lys, are gone from the Hague to Vienna, with the Emperor's Passports. As the former was advanced to the Dignity of a Baron by the Emperor, in acknowledgement of the Services he perform'd to his Imperial Majesty during the War for the Spanish Succession, when he furnish'd that Monarch with great Sums of Money, which were afterwards punctually paid; so the latter, who is as rich as the Baron, and much more known, especially in France, where he was once broke upon the Wheel in Effigy, for an Affair with a Girl of the Opera, &c. is gone to make the same Offer to his Imperial Majesty as Suasso did formerly, in hopes of being likewise rewarded with the Title of Baron. 'Tis verily believ'd, that those two Gentlemen have undertak'n to furnish the Emperor with several Millions of Florins, to enable him to support the War against the Turks.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PARALYSIS, and PARALYTICK Disorders so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts upon concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.
